

Deck Notes

This deck has 20 turns of downloading support personnel, mostly dominion personnel but also some Cardassian. Some of the Cardassian personnel cannot be download to Terrork Nor, since I don't include the appropriate site, so get the Prakesh out on a previous turn to download these individuals. Make note that some of the support personnel are also from the Delta quadrant and cannot be played normally (they have to be downloaded, which assign support personal allows for)

My general strategy is 1) Get someone shopping on the promenade and get mourn out for the extra card draw at quarks.

2) Use Homefront to download Deyos, get a ship staffed and get Deyos onto the ship as early as possible. I avoid downloading Jem'hadar support personal until that time (there are some Breen and also some Cardassians to download in the mean time). Then you have the extra card draw from Deyos each turn while you downloading the remaining Jem'Hadar Support personnel to his ship.

3) When ready, use Homefront to download Talak'talan to download Ultimatum to download Bajoran Wormhole, and move through to the Alpha quadrant that same turn (to avoid opponents revolving door on following turns). Hopefully you get an establish dominion foothold in hand before that happens.

4) Use ultimatum to setup a remote supply depot and download hand weapons, Ablative Armor, or Science Kit and Med Kit, depending on the opponent.

5) Do some damage to your opponent, before completing missions.

6) Do missions. Cardassians can be downloaded to Terok Nor to meet mission requirements or get past dilemmas where necessary.

User your wormholes to send opponent to the Delta quadrant or vice versa, jump directly to opponents ship to attack, or get back to the Gamma quad if they close your bajoran wormhole, OR go to the delta quadrant and establish dominion foothold there as your last mission.
